STATEMENT OF APPLICATION / IFDA CODE OF ETHICS

Members of the International Furnishings and Design Association are expected to conduct themselves honorably so as to maintain the integrity of the Association. To that end, each member shall adhere to the following rules of conduct and principles guiding membership behavior:

1. A member shall abide by the bylaws of both the International and Chapter organizations and hold membership in the Association as both a privilege and a responsibility.
2. A member is obligated through personal and professional conduct to uphold and maintain, beyond reproach, the dignity of the Association.
3. The name "International Furnishings and Design Association" may be utilized by the international organization and its affiliated Chapters, who must add the proper Chapter designation to the name, except that an individual may, with written approval of the International Board of Directors, use the name of the Association to sponsor or co-sponsor an activity or purpose.
4. A member shall not utilize their position as an officer in the Association, or their membership, to gain purely personal advantage in advertising, merchandising, or promotion. However, a member may and is encouraged, to utilize initials "IFDA" after their name on business stationery and business announcements.
5. A member shall recognize and respect the professional standards of other IFDA members and shall encourage a high level of cooperation with allied organizations.
6. A member shall sponsor for IFDA membership, only those individuals known to have, and to practice, the highest professional and ethical standards.
7. A member may not use the IFDA Directory as a mailing list for commercial or political purposes, nor permit its use by a non-member for any purpose.
8. A member shall fully and honestly always represent his/her qualifications.

Adherence to these principles is the obligation of each member and any violation or misconduct that is detrimental to the best interest of the Organization shall be dealt with as provided in Article III, Section 5, of the Bylaws.

In applying for membership in the International Furnishings and Design Association, I attest to the accuracy of the information provided and my eligibility for the category in which I am applying. I agree to abide by the IFDA Code of Ethics and will maintain and enhance the prestige and integrity of the IFDA.
